

Volunteer for a York County Boards and Commissions Vacancy

York, SC-Looking for a way to serve in your community? The York County Council is in need of dedicated volunteers to serve on various York County Boards and Commissions. County Council fills appointments on the various boards and commissions.

Responsibilities of the boards and commissions differ. Some provide recommendations to Council, and others act as a policy-making body that oversees the operation of their respective independent agency. To see a list of boards and commissions, please visit <https://www.yorkcountygov.com/CountyCouncil/BoardsAndCommissions>. Additionally at this link, each board and commission has a brief description and a staff liaison to contact for additional information.

To find out about available open positions, please contact the Clerk to Council at (803) 628-3954. To print or fill out an online application, please visit the following link: <https://www.yorkcountygov.com/CountyCouncil/BoardsAndCommissions>.
